

Ayre Manor News Letter 2016

On July 1st, we have the joy of celebrating Canada Day, a Federal holiday marking the enactment of the Constitution Act of 1867 which united three colonies into a single country, proudly referred to as Canada.

Monthly Trivia Question:

What is Canada's National sport?

Interestingly, while many would quickly assume the answer to be hockey, the national sport of Canada was traditionally just Lacrosse, a game which dates back to the 17th century. As of 1994, Canada now has two national sports, both Lacrosse and Hockey.
