Gardener's Poem:

In my Autumn garden I was fain
To mourn among my scattered
roses;
Alas for that last rosebud which uncloses
To Autumn's languid sun and rain
When all the world is on the wane!
Which has not felt the sweet constraint of June,
Nor heard the nightingale in tune.
Broad-faced asters by my garden
walk,
You are but coarse compared with
roses:
More choice, more dear that
rosebud which uncloses,
Faint-scented, pinched, upon its stalk
That least and last which cold winds
balk;
A rose it is though least and last of all,
A rose to me though at the fall.

Activities will be hosting a Music bingo to celebrate Halloween on Wednesday October 29th at 1:30 in the assisted living lounge. Come out for some themed treats and spookily good times. Music will not be Halloween themed

Monthly Joke:

How does a scarecrow drink his juice?
With a straw!

Hayley represented Ayre Manor in The Grande Parade walk on September 20th. Thank you to everyone who cheer her on/supported and help donate toward this amazing fundraiser. Event day was amazing and Ayre Manor was about to contribute $1,165 towards building a senior's center here in our community.

All together in this Grande event Sooke raised $16,850 which is over half the goal of $25,000. Way to go Sooke!!
